

Kings International College for Business & the Arts
Partnership Agreement between Parents, Students and Kings International College for Business and the Arts

Introduction

Our College is committed to working in partnership to enrich lives through learning. We shall do this by providing:

- opportunities for learning that are second to none
- a safe and stimulating environment in which to learn
- an atmosphere for learning in which students can take a pride in achievement
- an ethos that supports individuals to develop self-esteem, respect for others, integrity, perseverance and the determination to succeed
- opportunities for our partners to contribute to the continuous improvement of our College.

The purpose of this agreement is to state clearly what parents, students and Kings International College can expect of one another, and it will be reviewed regularly by all parties concerned.
